Table of Contents

FOREWORD THE VOW PREFACE ACKNOWLEDGMENT	xi xii xiv
		xvi
		The History of Jewish Bardejov
	Early Signs of Jewish Life (1247–1780)	19
A Jewish Community is Born (1780–1914)	20
Establishment of Jewish Suburbia	23
The Religious Character of Bardejov's Jewish Community	26
The Halberstam Rabbinic Dynasty	28
The Bardejov Spa	30
The Hebrew Printing Press	32
Diversity of Jewish Life During the First Czechoslovak Republic (1918–1938)	34
The Economy	34
Civic Engagement	35
Religious Life in the 1920s and 1930s	36
Eruv	38
Jewish Education	39
Voluntary Associations	44
Zionism	46
Sports	50
The Destruction of Jewish Bardejov	52
The Dissolution of the First Czechoslovak Republic (1938)	-
Andrej Hlinka, Jozef Tiso, and the Declaration of Slovak Autonomy	53
Initial Anti-Jewish Measures	53
Eruv Ban	54 54
The Aborted Deportation to Hungary	55 55
Dissolution of Voluntary Associations	56
The Systematic Purge of Jews from Society (1938–1942)	57
Anti-Jewish Propaganda	58
Anti-Jewish Legislation	59
Aryanization	61
Labor Camps	64
The Jewish Codex (1941)	6 <sub>7</sub>
Mass Deportation (1942)	70
Preparations	74
March 20–25, 1942: First Transport	76
The Typhoid Rescue Plan	77
April 7–10, 1942: Second Transport	77
May 15–16, 1942: Family Transports	78
Konskowola	80
Rejowiec	81
Opole Lubelskie	82
The Fate of Bardejov Jews Who Escaped Deportation in 1942	83
The Righteous of Bardejov	86

Bardejov After the War	88
The Liberation of Bardejov	89
Jewish Survivors Return to Bardejov	90
Obstacles to Reintegration in Post-War Bardejov	94
Meeting Material Needs	94
Social Ambivalence toward Jewish Returnees	94
The Return of Anti-Semitism	95
Jewish Organizations in Bardejov, 1945–1949	96
Accelerated Emigration to Israel, 1948–1949	97
Anti-Zionism: The New Face of Anti-Semitism	98
Communal Life in the 1950s	100
A Dwindling Community in the 1960s	101
A Brief Thaw in Relations with the State	102
From the Prague Spring of 1968 to the End of Communism in 1989	102
The Last Jews of Bardejov	104
Maximilán Meyer Špira	104
Karol and Berta Šimonovič	105
Remembering Jewish Bardejov	106
Jewish Communal Properties during World War II	107
Jewish Communal Properties after World War II	108
Tensions between Local and National Jewish Organizations	109
Bardejov's Jewish Properties	110
Efforts to Restore and Memorialize Jewish Bardejov	112
Martyrs' Memorial Plaque	112
Abraham Grussgott's Yizkor Book	114
The Bardejov Jewish Preservation Committee	116
The Jewish Cemetery Restoration Project	118
The Jewish Suburbia Today	120
The Old Synagogue	123
The Beit HaMidrash	124
The Mikvah	125
Jewish Communal Buildings beyond the Suburbia	126
The Bikkur Cholim Synagogue	127
The Chevra Mishnayot Synagogue	126
Reviving Bardejov's Jewish Heritage	128
Commemorative Gathering of Jewish Bardejovers, May 2012	128
Dedication of the Holocaust Memorial, June 2014	132
An Architect's Vision, by Giora Solar	134
New Research and Educational Events	136

Table of Contents (Continued)

Timeline of Jewish Bardejov	138
The Names Project	143
Every Person Has a Name	144
The Holocaust Memorial Name Tablets	146
The Archival Lists	154
The Origin and Scope of the Names Project	156
List of Family Names Including Bardejov and Surrounding Villages	178
Readers' Guide to the Family Names List	180
Bardejov Families	183
Villages	320
Remembrances and Tributes	362
Appendixes	404
APPENDIX A: List of Survivors from Bardejov	406
APPENDIX B: Lists of Bardejov Testimonies at USC Shoah Foundation	413
APPENDIX C: Numerical List of Gravestones in Bardejov Jewish Cemetery	415
APPENDIX D: Alphabetical List of Gravestones in Bardejov Jewish Cemetery	443
Suggestions For Further Reading	455
Glossary	456
Photo Credits	458
Index	462